

repentance: to think again

forgiveness vespers

3pm Sunday
February 19, 2012

Msgr George Appleyard, homilist

The Franciscan friars welcome those who do not have forgiveness vespers in their parish to join and pray these moving prayers to start the Great Fast. Let us turn to God our Father with repentant hearts, and seek to reconcile with our brothers and sisters that we will become ever more people of mercy and peace.

About the homilist: Msgr George Appleyard is a priest and Vicar General of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of St. Josaphat, author of Light of the East: a Guide to Eastern Catholicism for Western Catholics and You Are Gods: An Introduction to the Concept of Deification in the Byzantine Tradition. Msgr Appleyard will preach on the theme: Repentance: to think again.

Reception following vespers.

Cost: Free-will donations accepted. As the prophet Isaiah says: come without money, without cost... If you would like to bring baked goods for the reception, please let us know by email at holydormition@gmail.com – or by phone: 570-788-1212 x 400.
